

PRE-COLUMBIAN SOCIETY OF NEW YORK

2019–2020 Lecture Program

Thursday, September 12, 2019—6:00 PM

American Pompeii: A Collection at the AMNH and the Archaeology of the Antigua Guatemala Valley

Oswaldo Chinchilla Mazariegos, Associate Professor of Anthropology, Yale University

Friday, October 18, 2019—6:00 PM

This Tortilla Is My Body: The Last Supper in Eighteenth-Century Nahuatl Passion Plays

Louise M. Burkhart, Professor of Anthropology, University at Albany–SUNY

Thursday, December 12, 2019—6:00 PM

What was Chavín? New Perspectives from the Edge of the Andean World

Michelle Young, PhD Candidate in Anthropology, Yale University; 2019–2020 Fellow, Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection

Thursday, January 30, 2020—6:00 PM

Andean Textile Traditions: Materials, Materiality, and Culture

Elena Phipps, Lecturer, World Arts and Culture, UCLA; Senior Museum Scholar, The Metropolitan Museum of Art

Thursday, March 5, 2020—6:00 PM

Smoothing the Path for Rough Stones: The Formation and Disposition of the Arensburg Collection of Pre-Columbian Art, ca. 1910–1950

Ellen Hoobler, William B. Ziff, Jr. Associate Curator of the Art of the Americas, Walters Art Museum

Friday, April 17, 2020—6:00 PM

Metonymy in Mesoamerican Art

Andrew Finegold, Assistant Professor of Visual Culture of the Ancient Americas, University of Illinois at Chicago

All lectures take place at the Institute of Fine Arts–NYU, 1 E. 78th Street, NYC

For more information, visit our website at www.pcsny.org.